FOREWORD

The establishment of the Sons of The American Legion as a non-political, non-sectarian civilian organization was authorized by action of the 14th National Convention of The American Legion in Portland, Ore., Sept. 12-15, 1932.

In 1939, the SAL was riding the crest and had a numerical size of about seven percent as large as the parent organization. The Sons organization seemed destined to grow even larger, but looming on the horizon was World War II. With the passing of time, thousands of young men suddenly found themselves old enough to be in the armed services.

Many of the Sons never returned from World War II and those that did found that their service had made them eligible to join the ranks of The American Legion itself, which, in 1942 opened the door to the returning World War II veterans.

Membership in the Sons of The American Legion dropped from a high of 72,633 in 1939 to a low of 5,631 in 1953. Many factors caused the lean years for the SAL program. The former Sons, now veterans of World War II, had no children in the immediate postwar years. Housing shortages...a nation on the move...the G.I. Bill that sent thousands of veterans back to school... and the Korean War that put reservists back in uniform were some of the contributing factors.

However, by 1963, enrollment had climbed to nearly 17,000. In noting this renewed growth, the National Executive Committee, in regular meeting assembled in Indianapolis, Ind., April 30 - May 1, 1964, passed Resolution 22, urging that the SAL program "be encouraged and implemented by internal promotion and increased public recognition through the National Headquarters staff and the various Departments of The American Legion." Approval was given for the Sons to conduct their first National SAL Workshop during the Legion's National Convention in Dallas, Tex., in 1964.

In noting a need for a small national body to give the SAL program national direction and stimulation, the Legion's NEC gave its approval to Resolution 60 at its May 8-9, 1969, meeting in St. Louis, Mo. Resolution 60 created a Sons of The American Legion Committee, consisting of four members and a chairman. Two of the members were from the ranks of the SAL, while the chairman and the other two members were American Legionnaires.

After conducting a long and detailed study of the over-all organizational structure of the SAL, the Sons Committee reported that there was a "definite need for a National Sons of The American Legion organization and the updating of the National Constitution and By-Laws of the SAL, as approved by the Legion's NEC back in May, 1933, and subsequently amended."

The Legion's National Executive Committee at its May 3 - 4, 1972, meeting in Indianapolis, Ind., gave its approval to Resolution 13, creating a National SAL organization under the full supervision and control of the Legion's NEC, thus opening the door for the Sons of The American Legion to hold their first National Convention in Chicago, Ill., in August 1972. Resolution 13 also rescinded in its entirety the old SAL Constitution and By-Laws, as adopted in 1933.

The American Legion's National Executive Committee at its spring meeting on May 2, 1973, gave approval to Resolution 21 originating from the Legion's Internal Affairs Commission. The Resolution established a procedure for handling matters originating from SAL National Conventions and SAL National Executive Committee meetings. All actions of the Sons of The American Legion National Convention and/or NEC are reviewed by the Legion's Internal Affairs Commission. The Internal Affairs Commission then affixes to its report to the Legion's NEC an addendum in digest form listing all such actions together with a statement setting forth the Internal Affairs Commission's disposition of each action. Unless specific contrary action is taken by the Legion's NEC with respect to the addendum items, the disposition recommended by the The American Legion's Internal Affairs Commission becomes the disposition of the NEC.

At its fall meeting in Indianapolis, Indiana, October 17 - 18, 1973, the Legion gave its approval to Resolution 15, abolishing the National SAL Committee created by Resolution 60 by the Legion's NEC at its meeting May 8 - 9, 1969, in St. Louis, Mo. Residual responsibilities of the National SAL Committee are now assigned to the Legion's National Internal Affairs Commission.

Squadron Officers and Duties

SQUADRON COMMANDER

To you is entrusted the important duties of teaching and protecting the cardinal principles of the Sons of The American Legion and the supervision of duties of all other officers of the squadron. You are guided by the squadron constitution and by the decision of the squadron as a body, yet the responsibility for the success of the year's program rests largely upon your shoulders.

Upon your ability as a leader depends the accomplishments of your squadron during your year in this office. As presiding officer of your squadron meetings, you should make every effort to see that the meetings are conducted properly. A recommended order of business and the ceremonial ritual for the opening and closing of a squadron meeting are outlined elsewhere in this handbook.

VICE COMMANDER — The responsibilities of this office are devoted largely to the membership enrollment activities of the squadron.

VICE COMMANDER — The responsibilities of this office are concerned primarily with patriotic observances, the development of squadron activities, and planning entertainment and social features which may be scheduled in conjunction with squadron meetings.

ADJUTANT — This officer is the secretary of the squadron, maintaining an intimate contact with the individual squadron members, keeping the squadron records, and publishing any necessary orders, announcements, and instructions.

FINANCE OFFICER — This officer has the responsibility of receiving squadron moneys and payment of all squadron bills when authorizations have been given for payment.

CHAPLAIN — This officer is responsible for the spiritual leadership of the squadron. In addition to attending all meetings, he should be ready upon occasion to take part in the initiation of new members, dedication ceremonies, and the funeral services of a comrade.

HISTORIAN — This officer maintains a current record of the activities of the squadron as a means of continuing a historical account of its endeavors over the years.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS — This officer is the sentinel or outer guard of the squadron. In addition to being the custodian of the flag and squadron standards, he should be ready at all times to assist the squadron commander.

Suggested Program of Activities

Since the age eligibility begins from date of birth, activities and programs of any squadron should be determined by: (1) age groupings of those eligible; (2) apparent needs of the eligibles; (3) needs of the community for the programs and activities which could be provided by the SAL; and (4) capabilities of those serving as leaders and advisers.

Just as each Legion post determines the extent of its services to the community, state and nation, so each squadron is permitted flexibility in planning programs and activities to meet the needs of its own age groups.

Pursuant to Resolution NC2-76, 100% Squadron Honor ribbons are awarded to squadrons that equalled or surpassed their previous year's membership by July 1 of each year.

The SAL's National Executive Committee at its first meeting at national headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana, in April, 1973, voted to award SAL 100% Detachment Honor Ribbons to all detachments that exceed their previous year's membership by the start of the annual national convention.

During the Fall 1985 SAL National Executive Committee meeting a resolution was submitted and approved that established an SAL All Time High (red) ribbon. The purpose of this ribbon is to recognize detachments for a record "All Time High" in membership.

A VA & R award titled "Volunteer of the Year" is given each year at the National Convention for the best VAVS volunteer. A plaque and gift certificate is given for this prestigious award. For further information contact your detachment adjutant for application forms and details.

Since 1999, the Sons of The American Legion have contributed $1,000 annually to the James H. Parke Memorial Fund Scholarship. Qualified VAVS volunteers should contact any VA Medical Center concerning details and qualifications concerning this scholarship.

SAL DETACHMENTS

There are several detachment membership awards given each year to detachments at the national convention for the first detachment to achieve 100% in their region and greatest percentage by region.

Also regional awards will be given for Americanism.

A National Emblem Sales gift certificate will be awarded to each detachment commander who achieves 100% in membership on or before the May membership target date. These certificates are redeemable at National Emblem Sales for merchandise only.

Information and details on detachment awards are contained in the SAL National Administrative manual available at the detachment level only.

There are additional membership awards that can be awarded for the recruitment of new members.

(1.) Membership Pin. An SAL membership pin can be awarded for the recruitment of seven (7) new members.

renewal rate as of July 1. Again, you must achieve all three of the above categories to receive this detachment award.

SAL detachments are comprised of the squadrons within the respective geographical areas and coincide with the boundaries of the appropriate departments of The American Legion. Some departments, however, do not have detachment organizations. At the present time there are 52 organized detachments that annually hold detachment conventions or campouts.

PATRIOTIC HOLIDAY OBSERVANCE

The observance of major holidays and other appropriate patriotic occasions should be considered a major activity of any squadron. On June 28, 1968, the 90th Congress enacted and the President signed Public Law 90-363, mandating that certain legal public holidays fall on Monday. This law went into effect on Jan. 1, 1971.

The following are legal public holidays:

New Year's Day, January 1.

Martin Luther King Day, the third Monday in January.

Washington's Birthday, the third Monday in February.

Memorial Day, the last Monday in May.

Independence Day, July 4.

Labor Day, the first Monday in September.

Columbus Day, the second Monday in October.

Veterans Day, November 11.

Thanksgiving Day, the fourth Thursday in November.

Christmas Day, December 25.

MAJOR ACTIVITY AREAS

The type of uniformed group for any particular squadron depends upon such factors as the size of the squadron, the age span of the members, and the interests and needs of the community.

Once established, the SAL squadron's uniformed group can be a source of pride for both the squadron and its sponsoring post. Such a group should be a willing participant in patriotic holiday observances and other worthy civic functions, not only to help expand the sponsoring post's representation at such events, but, also, to develop within the squadron an awareness of its purpose "to foster and perpetuate a true spirit of Americanism."

Volunteers - There is perhaps no activity in which an SAL member may participate that will reward him with more satisfaction of having performed a valuable service than that of serving as a volunteer hospital worker within the program of the Veterans Administration Voluntary Service (VAVS). It has been found through several years of practical experience that there is a definite place and need for these volunteer hospital workers.

Marksmanship - The Junior Shooting Sports Program combines basic marksmanship, qualification awards, and air rifle competition. Participants in The American Legion Junior Shooting Sports Program can be of any gender, through the age of 18. USA Shooting (the National Governing Body for Olympic shooting) and the National Rifle Association recognize this program as one of the premier youth marksmanship events in the country.

As the SAL member becomes older, his experience and talent should be utilized in leadership and instructional capacities within the squadron.

Older SAL members who have had Boys State experience can provide a junior counselor service, where necessary, to The American Legion in its sponsorship of this annual program.

TO EVERY MEMBER OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION

Only through your continued membership, support and cooperation can your squadron, your detachment and the National Sons of The American Legion program accomplish the purposes for which it was founded.

The Sons of The American Legion is your organization. Your activity on its behalf and your unqualified support will make it the organization you will want it to be and one you will be proud to be a member of.

Squadrons may participate in the annual observance of American Education Week, during this month.

DECEMBER

The squadron can be of valuable assistance to its sponsoring post in the performance of such services as distribution of Christmas baskets to needy families, helping in any seasonal charity fund raising drive, etc. Many posts plan special visitations to hospitalized veterans at this time.

JANUARY

A formal initiation meeting should be planned during January. Appropriate entertainment, and short speeches should precede the initiation ritual.

Invite public officials, local civic leaders, American Legion dignitaries and members of the sponsoring post to attend.

Study emphasis during the month should be devoted to "Citizenship" as required for point number 2 of the Five Star Program.

APRIL

The program of study for this month should emphasize "Leadership" as required for point number 4 of the Five-Point Program of Service. Also, those SAL members participating in the Ten Ideals Program should be using this time toward the successful completion of the ideals of "Courtesy" and "Reverence."

MAY

The squadron should be an active participant in its sponsoring post's Memorial Day ceremonies. Members of the squadron should assist the post in decorating the graves of veterans. Memorial Day is the last Monday in May.

Study emphasis this month should be given to "Patriotism" in both the Ten Ideals and Five-Point Programs, "Citizenship" in the Ten Ideals Program, and "Citizenship" and "Leadership" in the Five-Point Program of Service.

JUNE

June 14 is Flag Day. The squadron should assist its sponsoring post whenever and wherever possible in the promotion of flag display in the community.

Special plans should be made for an impressive "Awards Night" for presentation of the Ten Ideals and Five-Star Awards which have been earned during the year. This "Awards Night" could be a part of a father-and-son banquet.

The Emblem

The design of our emblem was taken from the emblem of our parent organization, but is oval in shape so as to be easily distinguished.

The star in the center represents our country, and the five points of the star represent the Five-Point Program of the Sons of The American Legion.

The sun in the background represents the Sons of The American Legion and the rays represent the loyalty of its membership.

The blue of the emblem, like the blue of our flag, stands for justice.

The two stars in the blue border stand for freedom and democracy.

The wreath below the star is in memory of our comrades, and those of our fathers who willingly gave their lives for their country.

The ten points of the emblem represent the Ten Ideals of every Legion son.

Wearing of The SAL Cap

The SAL cap should be worn at all SAL and Legion occasions.

The SAL cap should be doffed during the moments of prayer, in church, and at the graveside and held in the right hand at the left shoulder.

A member of the Sons of The American Legion wearing the cap should deport himself as to salutes, et cetera, the same as he would if he were wearing a military uniform. If he is not wearing the SAL cap, the ordinary rules of etiquette for civilian dress should be observed. (The proper salute to the flag in civilian clothes is to remove the hat and hold it at the left shoulder, with right hand over the heart.)

The SAL cap is not to be worn during meals.

Adult Leadership

It is of paramount importance on the part of the post sponsoring the SAL squadron that extreme care be exercised in the selection of adult supervisory leadership for the squadron. Legionnaires selected for the post's SAL Supervisory Committee must have a knowledge and understanding of this program and the initiative and determination to see that the program is perpetuated.

SAL activities must be stressed which will help to develop worthwhile American citizens with the strength and courage to face the responsibilities and challenges of adult life in an increasingly complex world. However, the program must not be permitted to become over-zealous.

It cannot be over-emphasized that the establishment of a squadron of the SAL or the development of any squadron programs should not be accomplished with the intent of competing with or luring members from worthwhile youth organizations already existing and active in the community. Membership and active participation in the SAL should serve the purpose of complementing other existing worthy youth programs and should serve as an enhancement of the individual SAL member in both his scholastic and extracurricular endeavors.

Care must be taken to permit the members to develop and use their own initiative and ideas in working out the details of all activities. Legionnaires on the supervisory committee should serve primarily as counselors for the leadership of the squadron.

Manual of Ceremonies

Plan of Squadron Meeting Room

On the occasion of regular meetings, or for the ceremonies of initiation or installation of squadron officers, it is suggested that the squadron meeting room be arranged as shown in the above sketch.

Other officers or members than those designated may be assigned to parts in the initiation ceremony. It is recommended that each squadron have a drill team, trained and uniformed for degree work.

The business of initiation of candidates is an important function of the officers of each squadron. All new members should be conducted through the prescribed initiation ceremony upon being admitted to membership.

Installation of Squadron Officers

All squadron officers shall at the earliest opportunity following their election be installed in the following manner:

The installing officer, who shall be either a department officer of The American Legion, a member of the Detachment Sons of The American Legion Committee, a post officer of The American Legion, or a duly-appointed representative, shall preside following the opening ceremony. He shall then call upon the Sergeant-at-Arms to bring before him the officers he is to install.

INSTALLING OFFICER: "The Sergeant-at-Arms will bring before me the newly-elected officers of _____ Squadron, No. ____."

All the outgoing officers are to be in their respective places and each officer shall have memorized his "charge" to the newly-elected officer.

The Sergeant-at-Arms brings each newly-elected officer to the front, facing the station of the Commander (or installing officer), in order of rank, with the new Commander to the right of the installing officer. After all are standing in place, the Sergeant-at-Arms salutes and addresses the presiding officer.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: "I present to you the newly-elected officers of _____ Squadron, No. _____, Detachment of _____, whose eligibility records for membership in the Sons of The American Legion have been duly checked and approved."

INSTALLING OFFICER: "You have been chosen to fill the various offices of this squadron. You will, I know, vindicate the trust that has been reposed in you, and fulfill in every way the obligations that trust entails. You will at once familiarize yourselves with the duties of your particular offices and you will proceed upon those duties in the same spirit of devotion and endeavor that characterized your fathers' service in any of the Great Wars, out of which came their basis for membership in The American Legion and your own in the Sons of The American Legion.

"You must know that the welfare and success of this squadron depends largely on you; and you must know also that upon your shoulders equally rests the burden of preserving the integrity of the Sons of The American Legion. You must protect and advance its good name before the people of this community, state and the nation. You must exalt it in their eyes. You must make them know, as we know its purposes and its policy. Forever remember the tolerant spirit that animates its members. There is no rank among us, for each serves as the equal of his comrade; and all strive toward the same goal, which is the realization in the life of the Republic of the ideals of Justice, Freedom, Democracy and Loyalty. Forever remember that the cardinal purposes of the Sons of The American Legion are the care of the dependents of those who have answered the final call and of those who are now suffering from disease and want; rightful education of the children of our country, and devoted service to the community, state and nation."

“You will raise your right hand and repeat after me, giving your names: “I, _____ do solemnly pledge myself to perform faithfully and impartially the duties of the office in the Sons of The American Legion I am about to assume, and I further pledge I am not a member of, and do not subscribe to the principles of, any groups opposed to our form of government.”

After the obligation of the new officers, the installing officer will address the Sergeant-at-Arms.

INSTALLING OFFICER: “Sergeant-at-Arms, you will conduct the new officers to their respective stations.”

The acting or retiring Sergeant-at-Arms escorts each officer-elect to his respective station, starting with the elected Sergeant-at-Arms and ending with the Commander. The Sergeant-at-Arms will conduct the Sergeant-at-Arms-elect to the station of the Sergeant-at-Arms, and when arrived at that station will address the elected Sergeant-at-Arms as follows:

“You are the sentinel or outer guard of this squadron. Be strict in demanding any stranger’s passport or membership card. Be ready at all times to assist your Commander.

You are the custodian of the flag of our country and of the squadron’s standards.”

The acting or retiring Sergeant-at-Arms escorts the Historian to the right of the Commander.

The acting Historian then charges him.

ACTING HISTORIAN: “Historian, to you is entrusted the recording of all current records of this squadron. The collection of records of your fathers post of The American Legion is of historical value, and the keeping of a record of squadron activities will, through you, become of priceless heritage to future generations.”

Sergeant-at-Arms next conducts the Chaplain to a position between the Commander and the Historian.

The Acting Chaplain then charges him.

ACTING CHAPLAIN: “Chaplain, to you is given the spiritual leadership of this squadron. You will, I know, lend dignity and respect to your office. You should be in close confidence with the Commander and the other officers of this squadron, and should attend all meetings of the squadron. You should be ready upon occasion to take your part in the initiation of new members, the dedication of halls, monuments or colors, and the funeral services for a comrade.”

Sergeant-at-Arms next conducts the Finance Officer to the Adjutant’s desk, where acting Finance Officer gives the following charge:

ACTING FINANCE OFFICER: "Finance Officer, you are the keeper of the moneys and in you is reposed the financial policy of the squadron. To you is given charge of the year's budget, and to you is given the duty of the payment of all obligations when proper authorization has been given for such payment. Your position is an important one, demanding integrity and honesty, and your election to this office signifies that your comrades have implicit trust in you. Guard well that trust."

Sergeant-at-Arms next conducts the Adjutant to his desk and the acting Adjutant charges him as follows:

ACTING ADJUTANT: "Adjutant, you have been chosen to assist your Commander in the wise and effective administration of his office. You will find your duties many and varied; the successful accomplishment of a well-rounded program depends to a great extent upon you. Keep an intimate contact with the members of your squadron and maintain the principle of Democracy."

Sergeant-at-Arms next conducts the Second Vice Commander to his station at the left center of the meeting hall, where the acting Second Vice Commander charges him as follows:

ACTING SECOND VICE COMMANDER: "Vice Commander, into your helpful hands are placed the important responsibilities of assisting the Commander in all of his duties. Particularly should you be interested in patriotic observances of all kinds, in developing squadron activities and in the entertainment features which mark all meetings. Help to observe strict tolerance among your members on all political, religious and industrial matters. You are the teacher of Freedom."

Sergeant-at-Arms next conducts the First Vice Commander to his position, where he will be charged by the acting First Vice Commander as follows:

ACTING FIRST VICE COMMANDER: "Vice Commander, to you is given the responsibility of an active co-operation between yourself and the Commander. Particularly should you interest yourself in the membership of the squadron. You should be assisted by the most active and devoted members. No single factor has so important an influence on the squadron's success as membership. You are the teacher of Justice."

INSTALLING OFFICER (to retiring Commander): "Your duties as Commander of this squadron have been completed; yours has been a year marked with earnest endeavor and success to a satisfying degree; yours has been a great privilege and a rich experience. The American Legion and the Sons of The American Legion have observed your faithful and untiring efforts and extend to you their sincere appreciation of the services which you have rendered. Sergeant-at-Arms, you will conduct the junior Past Commander to his post, opposite this station."

Sergeant-at-Arms conducts the new Commander to the installing officer, who in turn, brings the entire squadron to its feet by three raps of the gavel, then charges the new Commander as follows:

INSTALLING OFFICER: "Commander, to you is entrusted a very sacred duty - that of teaching and protecting the cardinal principles of the Sons of The American Legion throughout your entire squadron. To you is entrusted supervision of the duties of all other officers of the squadron. To you will come the indigent and the distressed and it is your duty to see that no worthy comrade is turned away without justice. It is your duty to see that Freedom is ever the watchword of those with whom you may come in contact. Loyalty to your squadron, to its membership, to The American Legion, are requirements which you now assume. You are more than the presiding officer for meetings. You are guided by the constitution and by the decision of the squadron as a body, yet the responsibility for failure or success of the year's program is largely on your shoulders. You must initiate and carry programs through to completion. You must thoroughly familiarize yourself with the policies and traditions of your squadron and of the Sons of The American Legion. To you I extend the congratulations of The American Legion, and I wish you well as you assume the responsibilities of your office."

Installing Officer then addresses the entire membership as follows:

INSTALLING OFFICER: "I present to you the officers of your choice. I congratulate you on the selections you have made. Now that you have chosen them to guide the destinies of this squadron, it is your duty to aid them in every way. Help them keep the Sons of The American Legion a free organization of free men, faithful to its principles and ideals."

He hands the gavel to the new Commander and the installing officer takes a seat.

Commander-elect then seats the members by one rap of the gavel.

Ceremonial for Regular Meetings

OPENING AND CLOSING

The squadron commander shall announce that the meeting is about to open. Officers shall take their stations. American Legion post members acting as supervisors will take their places among the membership.

The squadron commander will seat the membership with one rap of the gavel and doors of the meeting place shall be closed by the sergeant-at-arms.

The Adjutant shall proceed through those present, and after the membership cards have been examined, shall return to the station of the squadron commander, where he shall report, giving the names of all visitors, if there be any, and their post and squadron name and number as they are being introduced. The commander shall then give three raps of the gavel and all present shall stand at attention.

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "The Color Bearers will advance the Flag of our Country."

If a trumpeter is available he will sound "To the Colors."

A Color Guard may also be used.

The membership shall continue to stand at attention and render salute while the flags are being advanced and placed in position.

Commander shall give the command "Two" to end the salute.

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "The Chaplain will invoke the blessing of God."
(Caps are removed.)

SQUADRON CHAPLAIN: "Almighty God, Father of mankind and Judge over nations, we pray Thee to guide our work in this meeting and in all our days. Send Thy peace to our Nation and all nations. Hasten the fulfillment of Thy promise of peace that shall have no end.

"We pray for those who serve the people and guard the public welfare, that by Thy blessings they may be enabled to discharge their duties honestly and well. We pray for our comrades, that by Thy help they may observe the strictest Justice, keep alight the fires of Freedom, strive earnestly for the spirit of Democracy and preserve untarnished our loyalty to our Country and to Thee. Especially do we ask Thy blessing and comfort to those defenders of our Nation on sick beds in hospitals and elsewhere who are suffering mental and physical disabilities. Cheer them and bring back to them the blessings of health and happiness. Finally, O God of Mercy, we remember lovingly before Thee our departed comrades and those of our fathers who receive with Thee the reward of life everlasting. May their splendid example of patriotism and sacrifice guide us in our duty to our God and Country now and forevermore, AMEN."

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "In memory of our departed comrades and the comrades of our fathers, let us stand in silence."

Squadron remains standing and stands in silence for 30 seconds.

The sounding of "Taps" on muffled trumpet will add solemnity to the ritual.

Following the silence the Commander is encouraged to proceed with the POW/MIA Empty Chair Ceremony.

POW/MIA EMPTY CHAIR CEREMONY

This ceremony is a suggested outline that can be followed when an American Legion organization wants to call attention to Americans still unaccounted for from World War II, the Korean War, the Vietnam War, and other conflicts.

Resolution 288, adopted at the 67th National Convention, encourages all American Legion organizations to implement the Empty Chair Ceremony at all meetings. As a continual physical symbol of the POW/MIAs and the cause for which we stand, namely their return or full accounting.

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "Resolution 288, adopted at the 67th National Convention of The American Legion and Resolution NC 2094, adopted at the 23rd National Convention of the Sons of The American Legion calls for designating a POW/MIA Empty Chair at all official meetings of the Sons of The American Legion, as a physical symbol of the thousands of American POW/MIAs still unaccounted for from all wars and conflicts involving the United States of America. This is a reminder for all of us to spare no effort to secure the release of any American prisoners from captivity, the repatriation of the remains of those who died bravely in defense of liberty, and a full accounting of those missing. Let us rededicate ourselves to this vital endeavor!"

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "Place the POW/MIA flag on the Empty Chair."

The Sergeant-At-Arms, or other designated individuals, approach the Empty Chair carrying a folded POW/MIA flag. Upon reaching the Empty Chair, they reverently unfold and drape it over the Empty Chair with the crest facing the membership.

After the meeting is concluded the POW/MIA flag should be refolded and stored for future use.

Following the POW/MIA ceremony, the Commander and the membership will together recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "The Commander (or appropriate official) will lead the Pledge of Allegiance (SAL members and Legionnaires will remove their caps) and may direct the singing of the Star-Spangled Banner.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Following the Pledge of Allegiance, the Squadron Commander will lead the Preamble to the Constitution of the Sons of The American Legion.

“Proud possessors of a priceless heritage, we male descendants of veterans of the Great Wars, associate ourselves together as Sons of The American Legion for the following purposes:

“To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a true spirit of Americanism; to preserve the memories of our former members and the associations of our members and our forefathers in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our friendship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness; to adopt in letter and spirit all of the great principles for which The American Legion stands and to assist in carrying on for God and Country.”

One rap of the gavel by the Commander will seat the members.

SQUADRON COMMANDER: “I now declare _____ Squadron, No. _____, Detachment of _____ regularly convened.”

ORDER OF BUSINESS:

1. Reading of minutes of previous meeting.
2. Committee reports.
3. Sick call and relief.
4. Unfinished business.
5. Balloting on applications.
6. Initiation of candidates.
7. New business (and correspondence).

8. The good of the Sons of The American Legion. (The membership shall be permitted to make any suggestions of any kind, character or description, save for religion or partisan politics.)

CLOSING CEREMONY: The Sons of The American Legion meetings shall be closed in the following manner:

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "Is there any further business to come before the meeting? If not, the Squadron Chaplain will lead us in the closing prayer."

The Commander shall give three raps of the gavel, and membership shall rise, uncover, and stand in silence.

SQUADRON CHAPLAIN: "Our dear Heavenly Father, may we become better Sons of The American Legion, as we learn and teach by words and deeds, the principles of Justice, Freedom, Democracy and Loyalty. Be with us until we meet again. AMEN."

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "Till we meet again let us remember that our obligation to our Country can be fulfilled only by the faithful performance of all duties of citizenship. Let service to the community, state and nation be ever a main objective of the Sons of The American Legion. Let us ever be watchful of the honor of our Country, The American Legion, our organization and ourselves, that nothing shall swerve us from the path of Justice, Freedom, Loyalty and Democracy."

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "The Color Bearers will retire the flag of our country and the membership will stand to salute."

As the Color Bearers retrieve the Colors the Commander shall give the command:

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "Hand salute" (Colors are retired), as the Color Bearers reach the rear of the meeting hall, the command "two" is given by the Commander.

SQUADRON COMMANDER: "I now declare this meeting of _____ _____ Squadron No. _____, the Sons of The American Legion, adjourned."

The Commander gives one rap of the gavel.

Initiation Ceremony

FOR

SONS OF THE AMERICAN LEGION SQUADRONS

The initiation of candidates for membership is important in the life of the squadron. New members taken into the Sons of The American Legion should be initiated with full ceremony. The first impression is often the most lasting.

Each member of the ritual team should be equipped with the regulation squadron cap and the initiation should be conducted with strictest decorum. Badge of office should also be worn by the members of the team.

It is recommended that a trained and uniformed ritual team be in charge of all ceremonies and initiations, and that all members memorize their parts, so as to make the more effective presentation.

The official uniform consisting of official Sons of The American Legion cap, Legion blue trousers (without cuff and without stripe), black belt with SAL buckle, white shirt, Legion blue necktie with SAL emblem, socks (solid color black, navy blue, or white), and black shoes will add an effective appearance to the ritual team.

The squadron commander shall be in the center and at the end of the hall. (Gavel on commander's desk.)

At the commander's right and slightly in front shall be the American flag; at his left and on line with the flag shall be the squadron colors.

An effective display of the SAL emblem can be obtained through a cut-out portion at the front of the commander's desk, with the emblem painted on glass and with an electric light behind it, to be illuminated during a later part of the initiatory ceremony. A large emblem of The American Legion should also be prominently displayed.

Adjutant shall be seated on the commander's left. (All necessary record books of the squadron, together with complete list of candidates on adjutant's desk.)

Chaplain shall be seated at the right of the commander.

First vice commander shall be seated in the center of the side of the hall to the commander's right.

Second vice commander shall be seated directly opposite the first vice commander, to the left of the commander, in the center of the side of the hall.

Past commander shall be seated in the center at the end of the hall opposite the commander.

The sergeant-at-arms shall be entrusted with the duty of preparing the hall for initiation. He shall be in charge of paraphernalia, have it properly placed, see that the desks of the officers are properly equipped, and that the emblems of The American Legion and the Sons of The American Legion are properly prepared.

The business of the meeting having been cleared for initiation, the commander shall call the meeting to order with ONE rap of the gavel.

COMMANDER: "We will now proceed to the initiation of new members into _____ Squadron, No. _____, the Sons of The American Legion, Detachment of _____. You are requested to remain silent until the conclusion of the ceremony. The Sergeant-at-Arms will ascertain if there are any candidates seeking admission to our squadron of the Sons of The American Legion."

Sergeant-at-Arms salutes the flag and turning, proceeds to the ante-room.

Returning, he stands just within the door and addresses the commander as follows:

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: "Sir, (gives names of candidates), await initiation into _____ Squadron, No. _____, the Sons of The American Legion, Detachment of _____."

COMMANDER: "Applications of those whose names have been presented have been approved. If there are no objections, we will proceed with the initiation. Sergeant-at-Arms, escort the candidates into the hall and place them properly before the flag.

Sergeant-at-Arms retires, and returns with candidates, in line before, and facing the commander.

COMMANDER: "The Squadron Chaplain will offer prayer."

Chaplain steps forward, removing his cap, and says:

CHAPLAIN: "Let us pray. All powerful and all merciful God, ruler of the destiny of all men and nations, grant Thou that we may approach this ceremony with clean hearts and with minds alive to the ideals it represents. God of Hosts and Giver of Victory, we humbly beseech Thee to hasten the peace that shall have no ending. Thou hast blessed our Nation with free institutions, with wondrous gifts of nature, with stalwart and devoted sons and daughters. Thou has blessed us with the privilege and opportunity to serve our Nation as good citizens, advancing the sacred cause of Justice, Freedom and Democracy. Thou hast blessed us with the honor and the duty of upholding the principles set forth by our parent organization, The American Legion. Bless The American Legion and the Sons of The American Legion and those who are about to join it, that together we may serve in undivided loyalty, our Country and our God. Amen."

Chaplain returns to his position, membership is seated by one rap of the gavel and the Commander then addresses the candidates.

COMMANDER: "The Sons of the American Legion was formed, and is maintained, solely for the purpose of inculcating the male descendants of veterans of the Great Wars, with the ideals and principles for which The American Legion was founded; therefore, our sole aim, ideal and purpose is to teach and put into practice the principles which The American Legion cherishes, namely JUSTICE, FREEDOM, DEMOCRACY AND LOYALTY. Sergeant-at-Arms, conduct the candidates to the First Vice Commander for instruction."

Sergeant-at-Arms conducts the candidates in single file to the First Vice Commander's station and faces them toward and in front of him.

FIRST VICE COMMANDER: "Justice - The American Legion teaches that Justice is one of the noblest concepts of the human heart. True Justice makes no distinction of persons. It recognizes neither high nor low, rich nor poor, the classes nor the masses. It knows neither race nor creed. Justice lights the way of friends and comrades. To the sick and the disabled, to the widows and orphans of those who gave their lives that we might live, The American Legion has solemnly pledged that Justice shall prevail. Justice is stern, yet kind; Justice is not weak, but merciful. Justice views all opinions impartially, without anger, without malice. Foster with all of your energy a spirit of Justice in the affairs of this organization, and in your everyday life. Let no one be unjust to his fellow member within this organization, or upon the broad highways of life.

“I present to you a copy of the Constitution of the United States of America.”

A copy is handed to each candidate.

“Sergeant-at-Arms, conduct the candidates to the Past Commander for further instruction.”

Candidates are brought to designated position, in front of and facing the Past Commander.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: “Sir, I present these candidates for instruction in Freedom.”

PAST COMMANDER: “Freedom is, among the rights of mankind, the one held most dear. Freedom is an ideal of surpassing strength, for which men throughout the ages have willingly fought and died.

“In the War of the Revolution, Freedom was won for the people of the United States. In all wars, Freedom was the torch that led the defenders of the world through the wilderness of the conflicts.

“You must guard well the Freedom of this organization. You must keep the Sons of The American Legion a free organization of free men, ever faithful to the ideals that made it possible. Above all, you must prevent anything being done to prejudice the Freedom of the people of the United States, whose very foundation is the rock of liberty.

“By your appreciation of Freedom through citizenship, you will cause to be re-echoed the clarion sound of our Liberty Bell throughout our Nation forever.

“I give you the emblem of Freedom, an American Flag.”

Past Commander hands each candidate a small American flag.

PAST COMMANDER: “Sergeant-at-Arms, conduct the candidates to the Second Vice Commander, who will instruct them in Democracy.”

The Sergeant-at-Arms conducts candidates to the Second Vice Commander for further instruction. They are brought to designated position, in front of and facing Second Vice Commander.

SECOND VICE COMMANDER: “Democracy as exemplified in the United States of America is the highest form of government of which the mind of man is capable. It must be maintained and preserved at all hazards by the Sons of The American Legion. Democracy is government of the people, by the people, and for the people. Democracy is distinctly American in principle. It extends a voice in the government to every citizen, and all partake of its benefits.

To The American Legion, Democracy is concrete and actual. It is expressed in their meeting halls, where no distinction of rank is recognized, but where all are equal by virtue of a common service and a common ideal. I charge you ever to maintain that spirit of equality, in the meeting halls of the Sons of The American Legion and in your daily lives, which is a manifestation of Democracy. Permit every member a free voice, but no voice so free as to transcend the limits of Liberty. Seek to prove in all things that all are born equal with certain inalienable rights, and that a nation dedicated to this proposition shall endure forever. We, as the Sons of The American Legion, adhere to this great principle with unswerving loyalty.

“I give you the emblem of the Sons of The American Legion, which is also the emblem of Democracy.”

Second Vice Commander hands each candidate an emblem of the Sons of The American Legion.

SECOND VICE COMMANDER: “Sergeant-at-Arms, conduct the candidates to the Commander who will instruct them in Loyalty.”

The Sergeant-at-Arms conducts candidates to the Commander for further instruction. They are brought to designated position, in front of and facing the Commander.

COMMANDER: “Loyalty is the corner stone of our organization. It is as dear as Justice is desirable, as Freedom is glorious, as Democracy is practical. The most despised of all men is the traitor. He who gives aid or comfort to the enemy behind the lines, or he who gives information to the enemy, endangers the lives of his comrades and his country’s cause.

“Loyalty is one of the first requisites of a citizen. The Sons of The American Legion, it will cause us to defend our organization in all that is right, and to use our every power to keep it in the right. You must ever see that the officers of this organization are loyal to their duties; that the members are loyal to the Sons of The American Legion; that the Sons of The American Legion is loyal to its principles and that our United States is ever loyal to itself.

“You must understand, by this time, that the Sons of The American Legion is in no sense a military or a political organization. Composed, as it is, of members of every race and creed, it is obligated to strict neutrality of every question concerning a religion and politics.

“You have heard its four great principles - Justice, Freedom, Democracy and Loyalty. Are you now ready and willing to obligate yourselves to its pledge of membership?”

CANDIDATES: “I am.”

Chaplain comes forward and addresses the candidates:

CHAPLAIN: “You will repeat after me, I (giving your names), do solemnly pledge myself to carry out the aims, purposes and ideals of the Sons of the American Legion to the best of my ability, and I do further solemnly pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.”

At the conclusion of the obligation, all lights except that in the emblem of the Sons of the American Legion are extinguished by someone stationed by the Sergeant-at-Arms for that purpose. Gavel is rapped three times by Commander, bringing all members to their feet. For ten seconds silence is observed and without any cue the Chaplain speaks, saying:

CHAPLAIN: “There shines the emblem of the Sons of The American Legion. It is your badge of distinction, honor and duty. Just as the badge of The American Legion, it stands for God and Country, and the highest rights of man. It consists of several parts and each part has a meaning. The general design is that of our parent organization, but is oval in shape so as to be easily distinguished.

“The rays of the sun, that form the background, stand for the principles of The American Legion and the Sons of The American Legion, for Loyalty, and for the light of Justice, Freedom and Democracy, dispelling the darkness of violence, strife and evil.

“The two gold rings around the field of blue, bearing the name of the Sons of The American Legion, typify our membership eligibility - male descendants of members of The American Legion. The rings around the wreath typify our major objectives. The wreath itself stands for remembrance. Within it is set a star reflecting the glory of those who died that liberty might live. The five points of the star represent the five-point program of our organization. The ten ideals of the organization are represented by the ten points surrounding the emblem.

“Wearing of the emblem should ever remind us of the sanctity of the home, our Country and its free institutions.”

The Commander then addresses the membership, saying:

COMMANDER: “The emblems of The American Legion and the Sons of The American Legion are emblems of Americanism. Americanism is unity of love, singleness of allegiance, practicality of purpose, all directed to a common good. It is that spirit of patriotism which shall ever preserve our land from the stagnation which is the death of peoples.

As members of the Sons of The American Legion we must preach and teach the religion of patriotism throughout our daily lives. We must not forget our obligations as citizens, and we must continually strive to strengthen and retain those obligations. In the emblems of The American Legion and the Sons of The American Legion are great prophecies. They bespeak the fullest good for each in the betterment of all. They bespeak the promise of the defenders of the Republic. They exemplify the ideals for which they fought. We, as loyal members of the Sons of The American Legion, must assist in the carrying out of those ideals.”

The lights of the meeting hall are again lighted.

At the sound of the gavel the membership is seated.

COMMANDER: “I now welcome you into the Sons of The American Legion as a member in good standing. May you, by your every act and deed, carry on the purposes set forth in the Preamble to the Constitution of this organization with credit to yourselves, your organization and The American Legion. Always, in all ways, be a man; always, in all ways, be an American!

Sergeant-at-Arms, conduct the newly initiated members of _____ Squadron No. _____, to the Adjutant, where they will sign their names to the membership roll and take their places amongst their comrades.”

The Sergeant-at-Arms executes the above command and after the last member is seated returns to his station.

If the ritualistic ceremony has been performed in a meeting other than in its own squadron meeting place, the Commander may introduce the members of the team - following the introduction, the command is given. “Assemble Team,” and Sergeant-at-Arms will escort team from the room. This procedure may vary according to conditions and is not a mandatory part of the procedure.

Special Ceremonies

DEDICATION OF COLORS

POST CHAIRMAN OR COMMANDER OF SQUADRON: “The assemblage will please stand at attention.”

The Sergeant-at-Arms will call the Color Guard to display the colors.

Colors will be advanced from the rear of the hall to a position on the stage or platform and placed in their proper position. The trumpeter will sound “To the Colors” or “The Star-Spangled Banner” will be played.

POST CHAIRMAN OR COMMANDER OF SQUADRON:

SPEAKER: “In the name of _____ Squadron, No. _____, Detachment of _____, the Sons of The American Legion, I now dedicate these Colors. May they fly perpetually as the emblem of the cause for which the members of The American Legion fought and for which you are associated together in the Sons of The American Legion. Here is the Flag of our Country; safe within its fold is the freedom and the loyalty of our Nation. Beside it is the flag of the Sons of The American Legion; on its expanse the emblem of that organization - that star of hope, the laurel wreath of victory, about it all the sun’s rays, significant of the light of an ever brighter day.

I dedicate these Colors to the purposes of your squadron, community, state and nation, and with them I dedicate this squadron to the faithful service to our Nation, the ideals and purposes of The American Legion, our people and our Flag. Legion Sons, you will join me in saluting the Flag, YOUR Flag.”

PRESENTATION CEREMONY FOR BADGES, MEDALS, ETC.

COMMANDER OF SQUADRON: "In the name of _____ Squadron No. _____, Detachment of _____, the Sons of The American Legion, it is my pleasure to present you _____ this token, indicating that you have completed your work in _____ (Patriotism), (Citizenship), (Discipline), (Leadership) or (Legionism), showing your interest in the work of the Sons of The American Legion and which has won for you this mark of distinction. We know that you will cherish it and by your continued service to your organization be an example to its entire membership. I, therefore, as Commander of the squadron, take great pleasure in presenting this _____ (button), (medal), (or other trophy)."

FUNERAL SERVICE

The Sons of The American Legion is non-sectarian. Therefore, the service may be varied in accordance with the religious belief of the deceased member, the wishes of the family of the deceased and of the officiating clergy.

POST ADJUTANT BEGINS PROCEDURE TO PUT S.A.L. EMBLEM ON HEADSTONE MARKER

The proper procedure for having the emblem of the Sons of The American Legion placed on the headstone grave marker of a deceased Sons of The American Legion member begins with the post adjutant. It is the responsibility of the post adjutant to obtain the proper information from the relatives of the deceased. That information consists of:

- 1) Full name and membership verification; and
- 2) Name and address of manufacturer of grave marker.

This information should then be transmitted to your department adjutant who will verify the information and request approval of the national adjutant for the use of the emblem.

The national adjutant then authorizes the manufacturer one-time use of the name and emblem of the Sons of The American Legion on the specific grave maker.

Permission also may be obtained to use the Emblem of the Sons of The American Legion on grave markers on a pre-need basis. All requests are handled individually, but only through the department adjutant's office and to the Sons of The American Legion members with at least 20 years consecutive membership, only on a pre-need basis.

Post adjutants can save a lot of time, confusion and needless correspondence by making sure these procedures are followed.

AT THE GRAVESITE

Here the body will be lowered into the grave.

CHAPLAIN: "Man, who is born of woman, is of few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth as a flower and is cut down. He fleeth also as a shadow and continueth not.

“For as much as God hath taken out of the world the soul of our departed comrade, we, therefore, commit his body to the ground to sleep and his soul to endless peace to rest. The dust returneth to earth as it was, and the spirit returneth unto God who gave it.”

Benediction, if desired.

BUGLER: Taps. (With two bugle echoes from different positions of the cemetery if possible).

If uniformed musical organizations of the Sons of The American Legion are used in connection with the funeral ceremonies, white gloves should be worn, and the American flag and the squadron banner should be displayed at the head of the marching column. Mourning is indicated by attaching two streamers of black crepe to the spearhead of the Sons of The American Legion standard.

IN THE FUNERAL HOME

COMMANDER: “Death has entered our ranks, we members of _____ will now pay final respects to _____ who has been called to the final command.”

CHAPLAIN: “LET US PRAY: Almighty Father please accept into Thy divine care the soul of _____. We are strangers with Thee and sojourners as our fathers were. Grant us O Father that the sorrow we feel today may bring us closer to you. Help us to understand that death is not the end but only the beginning of the glories of a new life.

“Let us be reminded that our loved ones are enjoying Thy grace and love more than we are here on earth.

“Until for us also the day breaks and the shadows flee away, grant us to live that our lives may honor the members who have gone before us. Thus together may come to that city which Thou has prepared for them that love Thee and keep Thy commandments. For Thine own name’s sake we pray. AMEN.”

COMMANDER: “This moment is sacred with the almost visible presence of the one who has gone before. Let us not enshroud his memory with mournful tears, but let us remember him with solemn pride for his services to God and Country.

“We know how futile mere words are to express our deep and abiding sympathy to those who are left behind. May they now feel he is at least at rest and never ending peace.”

FOOTNOTES: SAL Honor Guard, if available, should line aisle before ceremony. Colors should be placed at head and foot of casket. At end of ceremony, Commander and Chaplain salute (Farewell my Friend) turn and leave. Members may file forward to pay last respects, salute and leave. After last member passes, taps is played and Honor Guard salutes, turns and leaves.

DISPOSAL OF UNSERVICEABLE FLAGS

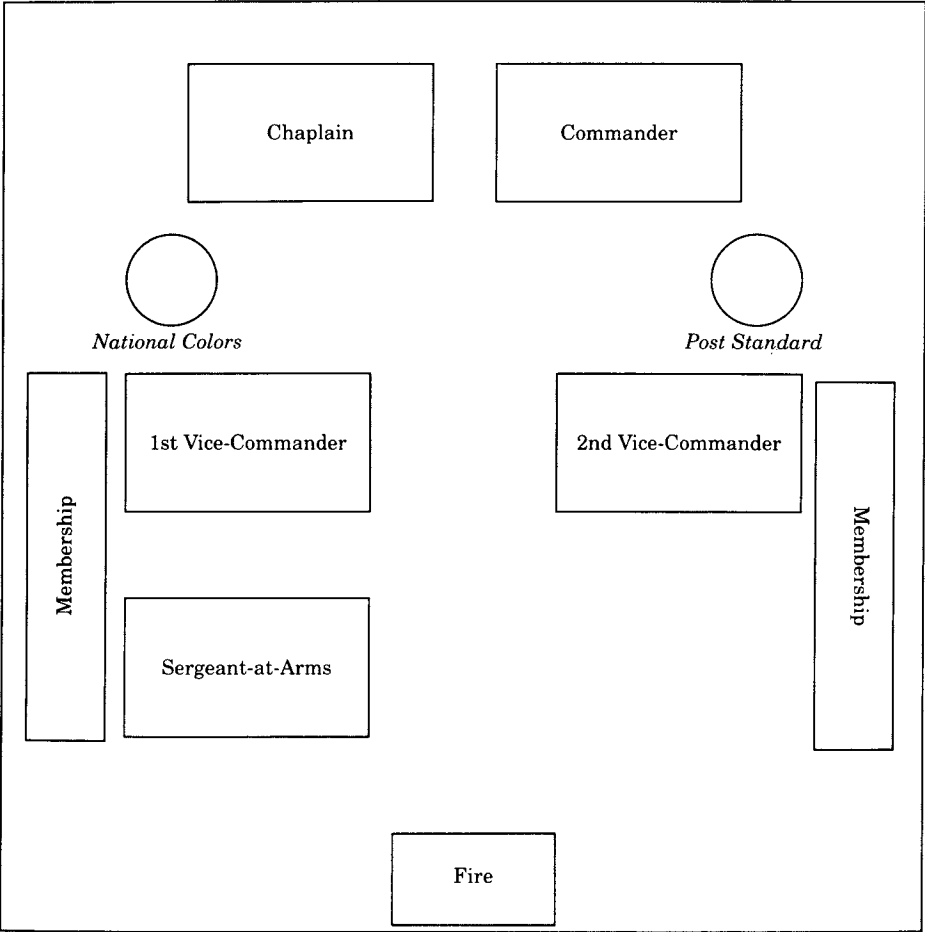

This is a very desirable ceremony to present as part of a Flag Day observance.

The Squadron assembles in meeting, out-of-doors, at night. Members are aligned in two parallel rows about twenty feet apart, facing each other. Officers at their stations as shown. A small fire is burning opposite the commander and beyond the rows of members. Diagram of arrangements appears below.

Sergeant-at-Arms: “Comrade Commander, we wish to present a number of unserviceable flags of our Country for inspection and disposal.”

Commander: “Comrade Sergeant-at-Arms advance with your detail and present the Flags for disposal and inspection.”

Sergeant-at-Arms calls his detail to attention. They form at the Post of the Sergeant-at-Arms, take the Flags which are to be inspected, march abreast down center until opposite the Second Vice-Commander, turn right and halt two paces in front of the Second Vice-Commander. The Sergeant-at-Arms steps one pace forward and salutes.

Sergeant-at-Arms: "Comrade Vice-Commander we present these unserviceable Flags for your inspection."

The Sergeant-at-Arms salutes, about faces, commands the detail, "About Face," crosses behind the detail and takes his post at its left, commands "Forward March." The detail marches to within two paces of the First Vice-Commander, halts and proceeds as before.

Sergeant-at-Arms: "Comrade Vice-Commander, we present these Flags which have been inspected by the Second Vice-Commander, for your further inspection."

First Vice-Commander: "Have any of these Flags served any other purpose?"

Sergeant-at-Arms: "Some of these Flags have been displayed in various public places."

First Vice-Commander: "Present them to the Commander for final inspection and fitting disposal."

The Sergeant-at-Arms salutes, about faces, commands the detail "About Face," crosses behind the detail and takes position on its left, commands "Forward March." The detail marches to center, turns left, halts within two paces of the Commander, Sergeant-at-Arms steps one pace forward and salutes.

Sergeant-at-Arms: "Comrade Commander, we have the honor to present for final inspection and proper disposal these Flags of our Country."

Commander: "Have these Flags been inspected by the First and Second Vice-Commanders?"

Sergeant-at-Arms: "They have."

Commander: "Comrade Second Vice-

Commander, what does your inspection show and what do you recommend?"

Second Vice-Commander: "Comrade Commander, since Flags have become unserviceable in a worthy cause, I recommend that they be honorably retired from further service."

Commander: "Comrade First Vice-Commander, what does your inspection show and what do you recommend?"

First Vice-Commander: "Comrade Commander, since Flags have become unserviceable in a worthy cause, I recommend that they be honorably retired from further service."

Commander: "Comrade First Vice-Commander, what does your inspection show and what do you recommend?"

First Vice-Commander: "Comrade Commander, since these Flags have become faded and worn in a tribute of service and love, I also recommend that they be fittingly destroyed."

Commander: "Comrades, we have presented here these Flags of our Country which have been inspected and condemned as unserviceable. They have reached their present state in a proper service of tribute, memory and love.

"A Flag may be a flimsy bit of printed gauze, or a beautiful banner of finest silk. Its intrinsic value may be trifling or great; but its real value is beyond price, for it is a previous symbol of all that we and our comrades have worked for and lived for, and died for - a free nation of free men, true to the faith of the past, devoted to the ideals and practice of Justice, Freedom and Democracy.

"Let these faded Flags of our Country be retired and destroyed with respectful and honorable rites and their places be taken by bright new Flags of the same size and kind, and let no grave of our soldier or sailor dead be unhonored and unmarked. Sergeant-at-Arms, assemble the Color Guard, escort the detail bearing the Flags and destroy these Flags by burning. The members shall stand at attention."

Color Guard forms. The detail about faces. Preceded by the Color Guard, the detail marches down center to the fire. National Colors cross over and take position on the right of the fire, facing the Commander. Post Standard takes position on left of fire. The detail lines up behind the fire, which is burning low.

Commander: "The Chaplain will offer prayer."

Chaplain: "Almighty God, Captain of all hosts and Commander over all, bless and consecrate this present hour.

"We thank Thee for our Country and its Flag, and the liberty for which it stands.

"To clean and purging flame we commit these Flags, worn out in worthy service. As they yield their substance to the fire, may Thy Holy Light spread over and bring to our hearts renewed devotion to God and Country. Amen."

Commander: "Hand salute."

Color Guards present arms. Post Standard is dipped. All officers and members, except those on the flag detail, salute. Member of the flag detail dip the condemned flags in kerosene and place them on a rack over the fire. Bugler sounds "To the Colors."

Commander, at conclusion of "To the Colors:" "Two".

The Color Guard shall resume its station and detail is dismissed.

Color Guard advances down center and places Colors. Members of the detail resume their places among the members.

Suggestions For Squadron Organization

PART ONE - PREPARATION

The committee which undertakes the organization of a squadron must first carefully study the aims and purposes of the organization as set forth in the Preamble and Constitution and the ritualistic work.

The entire procedure of organization should be placed in the hands of this committee and the post should pledge its active support to the work of the committee.

Following a careful study of plans for organization of the squadron, the first step should be the compilation of as complete a list of eligible members as is possible to prepare.

An attempt should be made to enroll all eligible members into The American Legion in order that their sons may become eligible for membership in the Sons of The American Legion.

Department headquarters will furnish individual application blanks and applications for charter on request from any American Legion post in the department. There is only one form of charter, and there is no fee charged in connection with its issuance. A post cannot sponsor more than one squadron of the Sons of The American Legion.

INDIVIDUAL APPLICATION FORMS

When the list of eligibles has been completed, each applicant will be given an individual application for membership form in duplicate. The eligibility of each applicant will be certified by the adjutant of The American Legion post sponsoring the squadron. One copy of the application should remain with the post adjutant for record and one copy accompany the application for squadron charter to department headquarters of The American Legion.

PART TWO - ORGANIZATION

Believing that the future of an organization is often determined by the original meeting, it is suggested that the first or preliminary meeting be planned with careful thought.

There should be particular emphasis placed on the responsibility of membership, opportunity for service, and pride in being eligible to carry on the ideals and programs of The American Legion as a part of the world's largest veterans' organization.

It should be stressed that the Sons of The American Legion is a part of The American Legion, full responsibility for the success or failure of the squadron rests with the squadron membership. They should be told the regalia and insignia are available to members.

If possible, it is well to arrange a short entertainment program for the meeting. Keep in mind at all times that the program must be presented for what it is - a program of staunch Americanism.

A letter of invitation to the meeting should be addressed and mailed to each eligible son. The letter should be signed by both the post commander and the chairman of the post Sons of The American Legion committee.

Many squadrons have been formed as the result of holding a father and son banquet in connection with the organization meeting.

Following the organization meeting, plans should be carefully made for the initiation.

As invitation to the public may be made through adequate newspaper publicity or means best suited, as well as through special invitations to the initiate and the members of his family. Every son of a Legionnaire should be given the opportunity to join and should be urged to do so.

A notice should be sent to each post member, urging attendance at the initiation meeting.

PART THREE - INITIATION MEETING

Particular care should be taken with plans for this meeting.

Short speeches by civic or Legion officials, together with remarks by one of the initiates, is sufficient to complete an interesting program.

Meeting should be called to order by the post commander, followed by the advance of colors while the audience stands at attention, then the Legion prayer and the singing of "America."

The formal initiation of candidates is the most important part of the meeting and should be arranged with careful thought and planning. This is the function of the squadron officers and post supervisory committee. The squadron should at the earliest moment organize an initiation team, and each officer should memorize his respective part in order that the ritualistic work may be carried out smoothly and impressively.

Care should be taken in the arrangement of members of the initiation team and the candidates to add effectiveness to the ceremony. A special section of the meeting should be reserved for the candidates.

Presentation of charter may not be possible at this meeting. It is suggested, however, that caps and emblems be presented to all members who have been initiated into the squadron.

SAL ORGANIZATIONAL MATERIAL

National headquarters provides each department headquarters of The American Legion with the following material, all of which may be had upon request to the department adjutant:

Official membership cards.

Application for charter forms.

Application for membership pads.

Statement of dues forms.

Squadron handbook.

Application blanks for Five-Star Award supplies.

SAL promotional brochures.
